TIBRS TRAINING TIPS

WHAT IS THE RIGHT TIBRS TRAINING CLASS FOR ME?

Newly appointed Reporting Agency Coordinators (RACs) and Alternate Reporting Agency Coordinators (Alt. RACs) are required to receive sixteen (16) hours of initial certification training. The first required class for ALL new RACs/Alt. RACs is Introduction to TIBRS Data Collection (8 hours). The second required class depends on the type of software the agency uses to submit their data to TIBRS. If the agency uses vendor software, the newly appointed RAC/Alt. RAC must attend a TIBRS Review class (8 hours). If the agency uses TnCOP (TBI's version of TIBRS reporting software), the newly appointed RAC/Alt. RAC must attend an Introduction to TnCOP Software class (8 hours). In subsequent years, all RACs/Alt. RACs are required to receive eight (8) hours of training annually by attending a TIBRS Review class or the annual TIBRS Training Conference.
